Who are we?

Mike and Deb Gilbert founded One City Ministries in 2008 after the death of their 18-year-old son, Sean. They have since lived and worked full-time in Uganda alongside a staff of Ugandan men and women united in the cause of untangling and fighting the web of poverty that holds millions of people in its grip.

One City addresses the tragic symptoms and root causes of injustice and poverty, providing essential services and creating opportunities for economic independence.

One City earned GuideStar's Platinum Transparency, the highest level of recognition. With just 12% of donations going to overhead, no nonprofit does more with a dollar.

Let's Party!

Let's celebrate 15 years by toasting the official soft opening of the Sean Gilbert Memorial Medical Center, which is already making a massive impact for villagers. We're launching the "Seek and Destroy" program in partnership with USF College of Public Health using technology to eradicate malaria in the region- saving more than 700,000 people annually.

The evening features two special guests from Uganda: Attorney Tony Galandi Kiire and his wife, scientist Dr. Rose Nakasi Kiire. Both were kids from the village who persevered through hard work. You will love their moving stories about where they came from and how they're giving back through One City.

Sean, ever the jokester, would love special guest comedian Andrew Stanley, winner of the New Face of Comedy at Montreal's prestigious Just For Laughs Comedy Festival. Andrew's parents are still alive, (Andy Stanley) so he keeps the jokes clean.

Enjoy a full bar, dinner and shopping at the infamous Africa TrAID marketplace.
